1. 12th Panam Taekwon-Do Games and 12th Congress of Panam Taekwon-Do council.

12th Panam Taekwon-Do Games and 12th Congress of Panam Taekwon-Do Council took place in Lima, Peru amidst great expectations and hopes of all Taekwon-Do practitioners in the region thus making great echo across the world. The events were attended by important figures of countries of the region to start with Argentina, Bolivia, Chili, Canada, Peru, Honduras, Puerto Rico, Jamaïque, Uruguay and Venezuela.

The pick point of the events was undoubtedly 12th Congress of Panam Taekwon-Do Council so proud and honored to have worked altogether in the last past years with a deep love and passion for our Taekwon-Do along with full responsibility to ensure the progress of our martial arts so as it reaches the top of our expectations.

The Congress recognized that there were times in these past years which were tough and hard, but splendid full of confidence and extremely pleased of what we all have accomplished with same trust, respect and devotion. The Congress was the time and place for sharing, exchanging, communicating for never ending development of our martial arts.

Senior Grand Master. Prof. Hwang Ho Yong, ITF SVP, Senior Grand Master Adolfo J. Villanueva, ITF Vice-President, Prof. Kim Sung Hwan, ITF Secretary General, Grand Master Osvaldo Rios Olivero, PTC President and Grand Master Eduardo Palmisano, President of TKD Argentina were invited as special guests of the events which were concluded with great success in compliance with expectations of all participants. All these achievements were inconceivable beyond tremendous efforts and commitment so deeply engraved in the whole process of the events by SM. Enrique Deacon, ITF EB Member and Secretary General of Panam Taekwon-Do Council along with all the staff members of the organizing committee with full support of lots of volunteers who invested their best to make the events a success. Prof. Mst. Ri Yong Son, ITF President sent a message of congratulation to the address of this great gala. Following is the integral part of the message;
