Section 1 General Provisions

Article 1.1 Definition of the Taekwon-Do Competition

1.1.1 A Taekwon-Do competition of the International Taekwon-Do Federation (ITF) forms part of the overall process of training, education, and evaluation. It serves to compare the Taekwon-Do techniques of competitors based on the fundamental teachings of General Choi Hong Hi, the Founder of Taekwon-Do.

Article 1.2 Definition of the Taekwon-Do Tournament

1.2.1 An ITF Taekwon-Do Tournament serves as a platform in which ITF Taekwon-Do practitioners demonstrate their Taekwon-Do skills. These skills shall be judged in accordance with the principles established by General Choi Hong Hi and shall enable participants to learn from one another.

Article 1.3 Purpose of the Taekwon-Do Tournament

1.3.1 The purpose of the Taekwon-Do Tournament is to standardize and develop the original Taekwon-Do techniques of the ITF and to promote good fellowship among Taekwon-Do practitioners through the exchange of experience.

Article 1.4 Purpose of the Tournament Rules

1.4.1 The purpose of these Tournament Rules is to ensure fair and impartial adjudication, to promote and maintain a high standard of competition, and to facilitate the orderly and efficient conduct of tournaments by providing all competitors and teams, at all levels of competition, with equal conditions and a consistent and appropriate competitive environment in which to fully demonstrate their technical proficiency and abilities.

Article 1.5 Application of the Tournament Rules

1.5.1 These Tournament Rules shall apply to all international and national Taekwon-Do competitions.

1.5.2 Any tournament intending to deviate from these Rules, even in part, may do so only with the prior written approval of ITF Headquarters (HQ) and the ITF Tournament Committee (TC).

1.5.3 These Tournament Rules constitute the controlling and current version of the ITF Tournament Rules. In the event of any inconsistency between these Rules and any prior edition, circular, guideline, or historical tournament practice, these Rules shall prevail, unless a deviation has been expressly approved in writing by ITF Headquarters (HQ) and the ITF Tournament Committee (TC) in accordance with Article 1.5.2.

ITF Tournament Rules (2026)

1.6.2 Permitted flags or banners shall not contain, display, incorporate, or be combined with any political, ideological, religious, or non-Taekwon-Do-related messaging, symbolism, imagery, or insignia of any kind.

Article 1.7 Commercial Messaging

1.7.1 For the purposes of these Rules, commercial messaging means any name, logo, trademark, symbol, slogan, image, design, wording, or other visual element intended to promote, advertise, or create a commercial association with a business, brand, product, or service, whether directly or indirectly.

1.7.2 Commercial messaging shall be permitted exclusively for official sponsors pre-approved by the Local Organising Committee, provided that such messaging does not conflict with the ITF's sponsorship agreements or the ITF's commitments to third parties.

1.7.3 In the event of any conflict, ITF sponsorship rights shall prevail, and any conflicting commercial messaging, if inadvertently displayed, shall be removed immediately upon request of ITF Headquarters.

Article 1.8 Amendments and Modifications

1.8.1 Any proposed revision or amendment to these Rules must be submitted in writing to ITF Headquarters (HQ), accompanied by a report on its trial implementation.
